OUT OF COUNTY Alternative Sentencing Options

OPTION 1:

Out-of-county applicants may be able to serve commitments/sentences from the El Dorado County Superior Courts by participating in the El Dorado County Sheriff's Department Work Program if Court approved for Alternative Sentencing. Interested applicants should contact the El Dorado County Jail to determine if you meet the qualifications for that program. The Sheriff's Work Program for WS is located in the lobby of the El Dorado County Jail, 300 Forni Rd., Placerville CA, 95667. Call (530) 621-6070 for any questions. For SLT it is located at 1051 Al Tahoe Blvd., South Lake Tahoe, CA, 96150 or call (530) 573-3000.

OPTION 2:

For out-of-county residents who wish to serve commitments on the Electronic Monitoring Program and have been approved by the Court for Alternative Sentencing, may be able to serve an El Dorado County Superior Court commitment under the supervision of one of the below listed providers.

- An interested applicant shall contact his/her attorney to assure the Court will allow the Electronic Monitoring supervision to be provided by a private company for the case.
- All costs of the Electronic Monitoring are the sole responsibility of the applicant.
- Failure to comply with Electronic Monitoring may result in Court imposed incarceration equal to any other violation of probation.
- The El Dorado County Probation Department is not responsible for any services provided by the below listed providers.

After receiving Court approval, if you wish to apply for out-of-county Electronic Monitoring under the above-listed conditions, contact:
