I AM OUT OF CUSTODY AND HAVE PRIOR FELONY CONVICTIONS.

DOES PROP 47 APPLY TO ME?

On November 4, 2014, California voters passed Proposition 47, a law that reduces or lowers many theft and drug-related felonies to misdemeanors. Prop 47 applies to people: 1) with pending cases; 2) those currently serving a sentence; and 3) to those who have already completed their sentence (no matter how old the case is).

To be eligible for Prop 47 relief, you must:

1. Have been convicted of a qualifying Prop 47 felony (see first box below), AND
2. Not have certain prior convictions or be required to register as a sex offender (see second box below)

If you are out of custody and have a prior felony conviction that you believe may be eligible to be lowered to a misdemeanor under Prop 47 even if you are under supervision (Probation, Parole, PRCS, Mandatory Supervision), call us at (530) 621-6440 Monday through Friday.
