For Immediate Release

APRIL 10th PROPERTY TAX DEADLINE

According to K. E. Coleman, El Dorado County Treasurer-Tax Collector, the second installment of the secured property tax is now due and will be delinquent if not paid on or before April 10, 2023. “The delinquency date falls on Monday, April 10. Property tax payments must be received by this office or must have a U.S. Postal Service postmark with this date or penalties will be imposed in accordance with State law.” says Coleman.

To pay online or to find answers to the most frequently asked property tax questions, access the website at <https://www.edcgov.us/taxcollector>. Taxpayers can also view or print copies of their tax bills from this website.

Electronic check and credit card payments made through this website are accepted as timely if paid before midnight April 10, 2023. Accepted cards include Visa, MasterCard, Discover, and American Express. Please note, the third-party credit card processing company charges an administrative processing fee for this service. If paying through a bank’s online bill payment system, we recommend making payments no less than 10 days before the delinquent date.

The Department is open to receive payments in person at the tax counter from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. Secured payment bins have also been installed outside both building entrances at 360 Fair Lane, Placerville, California. Please note that the payment bins are accessible only during office hours. The bins are emptied and secured after hours, for payment security.

Staff is available to answer your tax questions, during office hours, at 530-621-5800. You may also contact us by e-mail to taxcollector@edcgov.us. For your security, payments are not accepted by phone or e-mail.

It is our pleasure to serve you!
