

California Travel Restrictions

The Stay at Home Order will take effect Thursday, Dec. 10, at 11:59 p.m.

Regional Stay at Home Order Impact on Travel

Hotels and lodging should not accept or honor out-of-state reservations for non-essential travel, unless:

- The reservation is for at least the minimum time period required for quarantine and the persons identified in the reservation will quarantine in the hotel or lodging entity until after that time period has expired

Hotels and lodging entities in a county under a Regional Stay at Home Order cannot accept or honor in-state reservations for non-essential travel.

When the Regional at Stay Home Order is in effect in a region, hotels and lodging can only offer accommodation for:

- COVID-19 mitigation and containment measures
- Treatment measures
- Accommodation for essential workers
- Providing housing solutions, including measures to protect homeless populations.

Travel Advisory issued 11/13/20 remains in effect

This means people coming to California from other states or countries, including returning California residents, should:

- Practice self-quarantine for 14 days after arrival.
- Limit their interactions to their immediate household.

This recommendation does not apply to individuals who cross state or country borders for essential travel.

Californians are encouraged to stay home or in their region and avoid non-essential travel to other states or countries.

“Non-essential travel” includes travel that is considered tourism or recreational in nature.
